Exodus 3:1-12 Moses and the burning bush.

One day while Moses was out watching over his family's sheep, he saw a most unusual sight! He saw a bush that was on fire but not burning up. So Moses went over to see this strange sight. When he got closer, a voice from the bush called his name! "Moses! Moses!" He realized the voice was God's voice! Moses answered God, saying, "Here I am." God told Moses to take his shoes off because he was standing on holy ground. Then God told Moses through the burning bush that He had heard the cries of His beloved people in Egypt. The Egyptians had made God's chosen people their slaves and were treating them very poorly.

God then told Moses he had been chosen to go to Egypt to deliver this message from God: "Let my people go!" Moses worried about this and wondered if maybe there was a younger, more powerful, and even better spoken person who could go instead of him. But God had a perfect plan for Moses that would prevent him from failing. God had chosen Moses and knew he was the best man for the job, and He told Moses He would be with him throughout the whole journey. Though this was a big challenge for Moses, he did know that he would have God on his side when he went to ask Pharaoh to let the Israelites leave Egypt.

EXODUS 14:13-14

When God went to Moses
He spoke to him one-on-one
And said from a bush
Ever-burning the time had come
"You'll go to deliver my people
With words that are second to none"
So with signs and wonders
Equipped him to get it done
As Moses approached all the people
He knew what to say at once

Don't be afraid, stand firm and know
The Lord knew from long ago
Stand firm and wait, see how this goes
The Lord loves the ones He chose
Don't be afraid, stand firm and know
The Lord knew from long ago
Stand firm and wait, see how this goes
The Lord will fight for you
Be still and your faith will grow
And watch Him go!

Exodus 4:1-17 Moses receives signs and power.

Have you ever had doubts? Moses worried that the Israelites would not believe God sent him to take them out of Egypt. He also lacked confidence to speak to Pharaoh! Moses told God about his worries and doubts, so God told Moses to take his staff and throw it on the ground. When Moses did this, the staff turned into a snake! Moses jumped and was startled! God told Moses to pick up the snake by the tail. When Moses did, the snake turned back into his staff. Then God told Moses to put his hand inside his shirt and take it out. When Moses pulled his hand out, it was covered with a disease called leprosy.

The leprosy made Moses' skin turn white, so he was scared! God then said to put his hand back into his shirt and pull it out again, and his hand was completely healed. God told Moses to use these signs and powers when he talked to the Israelites to prove the true God sent him. But Moses still worried that he could not speak well enough to challenge Pharaoh, so he asked God to send someone else. God told Moses to take his older brother Aaron, who was a good speaker and would help Moses do the talking. God had settled all of Moses's doubts, and Moses was ready to go to Egypt and face Pharaoh!

Exodus 5:1-21 Moses and Aaron visit Pharaoh.

Moses and Aaron went to Egypt to meet with the Israelites and show them the signs. The people believed God had sent Moses! Next, they went to Pharaoh's palace. Pharaoh was the leader of the Egyptians, who did not believe the God of the Israelites was stronger than their gods. Pharaoh forced the Israelites to work hard as Egyptian slaves so that his own people would not have to build his kingdom. But Moses and Aaron told Pharaoh that the God of Israel said, "Let my people go, so that they may hold a festival to worship me in the desert." Pharaoh laughed! He said he did not know the Lord and would not let Israel go.

Pharaoh did not believe in the power of the true God of Israel. Instead, he actually thought he was like a god himself because of his enormous power as Egypt's leader. So Pharaoh told Moses and Aaron to get back to work! Out of anger, he then told his Egyptian officers to make the work much harder for the Israelites, so the Israelites were upset with Moses and Aaron for making Pharaoh mad. But God's plan to free the Israelites was just getting started. With miraculous signs and wonders, God would use Moses and Aaron to bring on events that would change Pharaoh's mind about letting God's people go!

BIBLE STORY MEMORY Exodus 5:2

Pharaoh said, "Who is the Lord, that I should obey him? ... I do not know the Lord and I will not let Israel go."

ACTIVITIES

Exodus 7:14-24 Moses and the plague of blood.

Pharaoh continued to be stubborn. So God told Moses and Aaron to get up early and go to the Nile River where Pharaoh went every morning. The Nile River was especially important to the Egyptians. They got their drinking, cooking, and bathing water from it for their families, animals, and crops. They dug canals to carry water from the river to everywhere in Egypt. God told Moses to hold his staff, the one that had turned into a snake, over the river so that the water would turn into blood. Moses told Pharaoh that since he did not listen to God, he would prove God had sent him by striking the river with his staff and changing it into blood.

While Pharaoh watched, Moses tapped the Nile with his staff and immediately the water turned into red blood! God's power was on full display as every ounce of water in every stream, lake, pond, and puddle of Egypt turned into blood. Even the water inside buckets turned into blood! The blood also caused an unbearable odor to fill the air, so the Egyptians desperately dug holes in the ground to get clean water. When Pharaoh saw this, he went into his palace and realized that he had never seen anything like this. He was shaken, but his heart was still hard toward Moses and Aaron, and he was not going to let his Israelite slaves go free!

Exodus 8 The plague of flies.

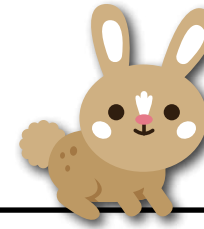

Soon after the water had turned to blood, God told Moses and Aaron to again go to the river where Pharaoh went in the morning and say, "This is what the Lord says: Let my people go, so that they may worship me. If you do not let my people go, I will send swarms of flies on you and your officials, on your people, and into your houses." Pharaoh heard what Moses said, but he did not let the Israelites go. The next morning, flies were in every house in Egypt! They were in his food, in his bed and clothes, and everywhere he stepped! But God protected the Israelites and there was not one swarm of flies where they lived.

Pharaoh called Moses and Aaron back to his palace. He decided to compromise and said the Israelites could worship their God in the place they lived. Moses said this would not be acceptable to God and that they must go into the desert to worship God. Pharaoh said maybe they could go into the desert, but not too far, and asked Moses to pray for him. Moses said the flies would be gone the next day, but told Pharaoh he had better not change his mind. The next day, the flies were gone, but Pharaoh's heart turned hard. He would not let the people go. Nine times God sent plagues and hardships on Egypt, but each time Pharaoh's heart was hard.

Exodus 12 The final plague.

Pharaoh was still hard-hearted. He would not let the Israelites go even after many awful plagues devastated the Egyptians, so Moses told Pharaoh that the last plague was going to be the worst. God told Moses He would send a destroyer into Egypt to kill every firstborn son, but would protect the Israelites. He gave Moses specific instructions for each Israelite family to kill a young lamb for dinner and paint the blood of the lamb on the sides and tops of the door frames of their houses. Then during the night, the destroyer would see the blood and pass over that house, not hurting anyone inside. The Israelites did exactly as God said.

At midnight, there was an overwhelming amount of crying throughout all of Egypt as every house, from the Pharaoh's to the poorest, had someone die during the night. But all the Israelites were safe as the blood of the lamb on their door frames saved them. Pharaoh was so sad that his son had died, that he finally agreed to let the Israelites go. God's chosen people were finally going to be free from Egypt. God told Moses and the Israelites to sacrifice a lamb every year and eat it as a special meal that night. During the meal, they were to talk about how God protected them in Egypt. This celebration is called Passover.

Exodus 14 Crossing the Red Sea.

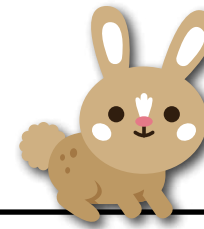

While the Israelites were excited to finally be leaving Egypt, Pharaoh and his officials were upset that they had lost their slaves. So Pharaoh assembled his best chariots, fastest horses, and strongest fighters to rush out of Egypt to chase down and bring back the Israelites. The Israelites saw the Egyptian army coming, so in fear they complained that Moses had brought them out to the desert to die! They lost their trust in God to protect them. But God told Moses to lead the people to the Red Sea and to stretch his staff over the sea. God would miraculously divide the water so that the people could cross the sea on dry ground.

As soon as Moses obeyed, the water of the Red Sea parted up on both sides, like walls. The Israelites walked across the Red Sea on the sand of the sea floor. When Pharaoh saw how the Israelites were escaping, he commanded his army to follow them, but as soon as they were getting closer, their chariot wheels began to fall off. When the last Israelite was safe across the Red Sea, Moses raised his staff again and the water went back to how it was, eliminating the path through the sea! The entire Egyptian army died once the waters flowed back and crushed them. God had delivered the Israelites from Pharaoh and from slavery in Egypt for good!

And you're all hey ...
Life ain't fair, is this the way it's really
Supposed to be?
And I'm all reminding you of Joseph from
The b-i-b-l-e
So break it down with me ...

Joseph took a little tumble in a pit one day,
hit the bottom when his brothers tried to hide him away, Father was betrayed, brothers
sold him as a slave, ran from sin but couldn't win was thrown in prison anyway, Pharaoh
called to say, "Tell my dreams with no delay",
Jo' was clear for all to hear that only God
could lead the way, when he saved the day,
Pharaoh put him on display, in the end forgave
his brothers face to face and they could hear him say ...

From bad to good in all things
God works for good in all things
What's meant for evil God turns it around
From bad to good, yeah
From bad to good in all things

Exodus 20 The Ten Commandments.

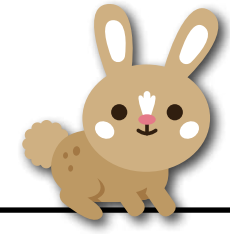

Just as rules are made to keep us and others safe, such as rules in our classroom and in our homes, God gave the Israelites rules called the Ten Commandments. The commandments were given for God's people to live in harmony with God and with each other, so disobeying a commandment is called sin. God gave Moses the commandments on a mountaintop and Moses shared them with the Israelites.

God wanted the Israelites to rest on that day.

1. "You shall have no other gods before me." We should love the one true God only.
2. "You shall not make for yourself an idol." We should not love anything more than God.
3. "You shall not misuse the name of the Lord your God." We are not to swear by God's name over something untrue or to use God's name as a bad word.
4. "Remember the Sabbath day by keeping it holy."
5. "Honor your father and your mother, so that you may live long in the land the Lord your God is giving you." This is the commandment with a promise!
6. "You shall not murder." We should never take a life that God has created.
7. "You shall not commit adultery." A husband or wife cannot be unfaithful by loving another.
8. "You shall not steal." We should never take what is not ours.
9. "You shall not give false testimony." We are to always tell the truth with a pure heart.
10. "You shall not covet." We should not be jealous or unhappy when others have more than us.

BIBLE STORY MEMORY Exodus 20:2-3

Q. In the end, what did Joseph do to his brothers who betrayed him?

Q. What does God turn around from bad to good?

"BAD TO GOOD" BOOSTER SONG ROMANS 8:28

You're all hey ...
What about the evil things in the world today?
And I'm all hey ...
Talk to Joseph 'cause the ball never
Bounced his way
And you're all hey ...
Life ain't fair, is this the way it's really
Supposed to be?
And I'm all reminding you of Joseph from
The b-i-b-l-e
So break it down with me ...

Joseph took a little tumble in a pit one day,
hit the bottom when his brothers tried to
hide him away, Father was betrayed, brothers
sold him as a slave, ran from sin but couldn't
win was thrown in prison anyway, Pharaoh
called to say, "Tell my dreams with no delay",
Jo' was clear for all to hear that only God
could lead the way, when he saved the day,
Pharaoh put him on display, in the end forgave
his brothers face to face and they could hear
him say ...

From bad to good in all things
God works for good in all things
What's meant for evil God turns it around
From bad to good, yeah
From bad to good in all things
God works for good in all things
For those who love Him
Who have been called
From big to small
He turns it all
From Bad to good!

Joshua 1: 6 The battle of Jericho.

After Moses died and the Israelites wandered in the desert for 40 years after leaving Egypt, God told Joshua to lead them into the promised land. There were people living there, but some had left because they heard how God parted the Red Sea and knew He had promised the land to the Israelites. So God told the Israelites to be strong and courageous because he would be with them, and then He gave them a sign. God parted the Jordan River's waters so they could pass through it, and then sent them to a big city called Jericho. The people inside did not leave because they knew their large walls would protect them from their enemies.

But the Lord told Joshua how to defeat Jericho, so he commanded his army and priests to do just what God instructed. On the first day, Joshua's army, seven priests with trumpets, and priests carrying the ark of the Lord walked around the city. The priests blew the trumpets and went back to their camp. They did this each day for six days. On the seventh day, they walked around the city seven times, and when the priests blew the trumpets the seventh time, all the men shouted! With a loud rumble, the ground shook and the walls of Jericho tumbled down! The Israelites took over the city and defeated Jericho!

2 Kings 4 Elisha is used by God.

The adventures of Elisha the prophet came after Elijah, but Elisha's story is told here first because just as God used his group of prophets to reveal the true God to Israel, God also used Josiah to reveal to Israel the true word of God in the next story. One day, a prophet's wife told Elisha that since she could not pay her bills after her husband died, creditors threatened to take her two boys as slaves. So Elisha sent her to her neighbors' houses to gather empty jars and to pour oil into each one. She poured and poured and the oil did not run out until the last jar! She sold the jars of oil, paid her debts, and her sons were safe.

Later, a rich woman from Shunem invited Elisha to a family meal. The woman knew Elisha was from God, so she decided to make a room on her roof so that Elisha could stay when he came by. Elisha asked what he could do for her, and his helper found out the woman had no son. Elisha told her that within a year she would have a son, and the next year she actually gave birth! Years later, the boy suddenly died, so the woman rode out to see Elisha. Elisha's helper could not heal the boy, so when Elisha returned, he and his helper prayed and Elisha stretched out over the boy. The boy sneezed seven times and came back to life!

2 Kings 22-23 Josiah restores obedience.

Israel had a revival under Elijah and Elisha, but over time the Israelites' hearts turned from God, so God sent armies in to invade Israel. Many of the Israelites fled to Judah, but there the people had also turned from God and had put idols in God's temple. When a new king named Josiah came into power at only eight years old, he later sent his helpers to the temple, which was being fixed and restored. During the repairs, Josiah's helper found the Book of the Law that Moses had written God's commands in, so he quickly brought it back to Josiah. It warned that if the people stopped following God, He would not let them live in the land!

When King Josiah read it, he was so upset that he tore his clothes! He realized how much sin Israel had committed and gathered his leaders and the people to read aloud the Book of the Law. The people were ashamed of their sin and renewed their covenant and promise with God. King Josiah and all his people promised to obey God and to do exactly what the Book of the Law said. Josiah then destroyed the idols and false gods the people had built all over Judah, and God sent a prophetess to tell Josiah that He would not remove the people from the land in Josiah's lifetime. Josiah had turned to the Lord with all his heart.

Isaiah 53 The future suffering servant (Jesus).

Isaiah was a prophet who told people about Jesus coming to earth 700 years before He actually arrived! This happened when God inspired Isaiah to write about a suffering servant who would die in our place to save us from our sin. This servant would seem like an ordinary man, but He would suffer for the people. So do we know who this servant might be? Joyfully, we know it was Jesus, who suffered and died on the cross for us! Isaiah also let us know this servant would be "pierced for our transgressions (sins)," so do we know who was pierced after His hands and feet were nailed to the cross? It was Jesus, God's Son!

Isaiah wrote more. He added that this servant would be "crushed for our iniquities (sins)" to die for us, and today we know that Jesus died to forgive our sin. He died for us because just as Isaiah spoke of people "like sheep that have gone astray," our Bibles tell us that God sent Jesus as our shepherd to bring us back to Him. Isaiah was used by God to write about the Savior of the world who would die, be buried, and see the "light of life" by rising from the dead! Because of Jesus's death on the cross and then victory over sin and death, we can be forgiven. Thanks to Isaiah, this is something to be thankful about!

1 Kings 17:1-7 Elijah receives God's care.

Elijah was a prophet whose words came straight from God and out to the people. Much of Elijah's time was spent trying to help the kings of Israel listen to God. Because Israel's third king was disobedient, God split the kingdom of Israel into two kingdoms: Israel and Judah. Some of the kings of Judah were great kings and continued to be obedient to God, but others were evil and worshiped false gods instead of the one true God. All the kings of Israel had been bad kings, for they led the people astray and would not let them worship God in the temple. Elijah continued to plead for the kings and people in Israel to follow the one true God.

God told Elijah that there would not be rain in the land for the next few years. So Elijah told King Ahab, who did not worship the true God and did not like hearing this news. Since Ahab had married a wicked woman who tried to kill everyone who worshiped God, God told Elijah to go and hide in a ravine far away. In the ravine, there was a fresh brook full of clean water to drink, and each day ravens brought Elijah bread and meat both in the morning and at night. During this time, Elijah was safe from King Ahab and under God's care, so he was able to rest and build up his strength to do the mighty work that God had ahead of him.

1 Kings 17:8-24 Elijah raises the widow's son.

Elijah stayed at the ravine, but then God told Elijah to go to see a widow, whose husband had died, who would feed him. Elijah arrived to find the widow and asked her for some bread. She said she only had enough flour and oil to make one last meal for herself and her son, and then they would be left with no food at all. But Elijah told her not to be afraid. He asked her to make a small cake of bread for him and then for herself and her son, and told her the Lord would not let her oil or flour run out until it rained again! She went home and did as Elijah said, and from then on her flour jar always had enough in it and her oil jug was never empty!

Later, the widow's son became very sick and died. The widow was upset and wondered if she had done something wrong. She remembered how God had used Elijah to save her and her son, so she told Elijah about her son. Elijah, with God's power in him, took the boy from her arms and carried him upstairs. He cried out to God to heal the boy and prayed over him three times, and finally—the boy's life came back to him! God worked another miracle through Elijah, who carried the boy to his mother and said, "Look, your son is alive!" 1 Kings 18 Elijah defeats the prophets of Baal.

Ahab was an evil king who taught Israel to worship false gods named Baal and Asherah. Elijah knew he was called to show Israel the true God, so he challenged Ahab to a competition: Elijah and the prophets of Baal would each make an altar to see whose god could send fire from heaven. King Ahab agreed and called 450 of his Baal priests. While the Israelites watched, the Baal priests went first. They built their altar, put bull's meat on it, and prayed—but nothing happened. They danced and cut themselves as an idol ritual, but there was no answer. So Elijah teased them to shout louder and said, "Maybe your god is asleep and must be awakened."

The Baal priests danced and called on their god all morning and afternoon, but by dinnertime Elijah told them to sit. Elijah then dug a deep trench around his altar and had his people pour water over it three times so that it was soaking wet! Then Elijah prayed, "Answer me, O Lord, answer me, so these people will know that you, O Lord, are God, and that you are turning their hearts back again." As soon as he finished praying, fire came roaring down from heaven! In a flash, God answered Elijah with fire that not only burned the altar but also licked up the water in the trench, and Elijah proved to Ahab and all of Israel that there was one true God!

In a quest for new frontiers
There's a choir of singing angels
That has never reached our ears

It's gonna rock, He's gonna rule
We've never had it quite so cool
We're gonna sing, we're gonna fly
And with our hands we'll touch the sky
It's gonna rock, we're gonna soar
Like we have never done before
It's gonna rock, He's gonna rule
For evermore!

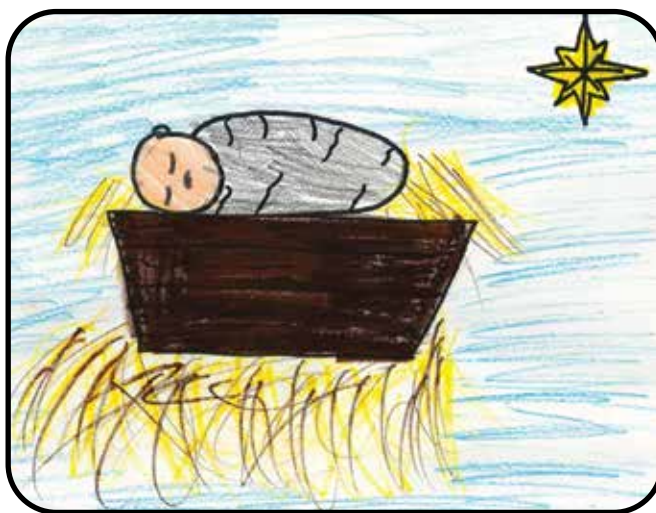

Though we try to find the goodness
In a world that's far behind
There's a paradise of blessing
We can't fathom in our minds
And although a life in heaven
Is a thought we can't conceive
Still the Son of God prepares a place

Isaiah 9 The birth of Christ foretold.

Josiah's three sons and grandson were bad kings, so God sent armies to take His people out of Judah. Isaiah spoke about this more than 100 years before, but he also said that God would bring the people back to their land and send a child to be their special king. Meanwhile, God inspired Isaiah with beautiful names that would describe this special king, and the people came back to the land and waited for Him. Then Jesus was born, and angels declared Him as the one Isaiah spoke of! He is called "Wonderful Counselor" because He understands our weaknesses, and "Mighty God" because He is part of God, who created the world!

Isaiah also called Jesus "Everlasting Father" because He is never-ending just as the Father is, and "Prince of Peace" because His death on the cross brought us peace with God, who loves us. Jesus gave Himself to take away our sins and bring us eternal peace. Isaiah also prophesied that this special king would rule forever, and today we know Jesus to be this special king because He defeated death on the cross. Isaiah's prophecy gives us great names to remember Jesus by. We love to say them when we celebrate the birth of Christ, because the best gift we ever received is the baby Jesus whom Mary placed in a manger.

LISTEN, ANSWER AND PRACTICE

Listen to your BOOSTER SONG to answer two application questions below. Your teacher will help with answers. Then, draw a "mini" picture of each answer to think about putting it into practice!

Q. What has never filled our eyes (or been seen by anyone)?

Q. Heaven is a paradise of blessing that we can't do what with?

"IT'S GONNA ROCK!"

BOOSTER SONG

1 CORINTHIANS 2:9

Even though we've seen the planets
In the distant, starry skies
There's a heaven full of splendor
That has never filled our eyes
And although we've been in outer space
In a quest for new frontiers
There's a choir of singing angels
That has never reached our ears

It's gonna rock, He's gonna rule
We've never had it quite so cool
We're gonna sing, we're gonna fly
And with our hands we'll touch the sky
It's gonna rock, we're gonna soar
Like we have never done before
It's gonna rock, He's gonna rule
For evermore!

Though we try to find the goodness
In a world that's far behind
There's a paradise of blessing
We can't fathom in our minds
And although a life in heaven
Is a thought we can't conceive
Still the Son of God prepares a place
For all who will believe

UNIT MEMORY Isaiah 40:31

But those who hope in the Lord will renew their strength.
They will soar on wings like eagles.
